

Be an advocate of art education in your child's school and throughout the state, by becoming a parent member of the Connecticut Art Education Association. CAEA is committed to honoring student achievement in visual art through statewide exhibits, scholarships and award programs. In honoring student artists, we also celebrate the outstanding art teachers and excellent art programs they have developed in their districts. Your membership fee will help to support CAEA's continued sponsorship of the Annual Scholastics Art Awards.

CAEA is a non-profit, all-voluntary professional organization. CAEA, with the National Art Education Association provides its teacher members:

- ◆ Professional development opportunities to all art educators at the state and national level.
- ◆ Resources and journals informing teachers of current issues facing their profession, helping them to provide the most valuable art experience for their students.
- ◆ Student exhibit opportunities such as Scholastic Art Awards and Youth Art Celebration to showcase student achievement.
- ◆ Teacher incentive grants, research grants and scholarships.
- ◆ Teacher members of CAEA/NAEA may initiate National Art Honor Society, National Junior Art Honor Society, and National Elementary Art Clubs at their schools.
- ◆ Members are eligible to be nominated for the NAEA and CAEA annual art educator awards.

Join our Parents & Friends of CAEA in our goal to provide quality art education for all Connecticut students. Help to advance the quality and status of art education in Connecticut!
